3. Approval of the Agenda:
Agenda approved by Motion
4. Approval of Minutes: May 25, 2016 Meeting
Minutes approved as amended: Item 7. A - corrected reference to 203 years to 2 or 3 years
5. Presentation: Trash or Treasure Program-Brett Baranco, MPD
Brett Baranco presented a program he experienced when visiting Stony Plain, Canada that he thinks would give residents another opportunity to reuse/recycle household items here in Meridian. It would be held over the weekend preceding Spring Clean Up. SWAC voted to continue discussing the program at its July meeting.
6. Old Business
 - A. "Hand in Hand We Recycle!" Mobile Collection Pilot Program-
 - (1) Press coverage announcing launch of new program-Update
The program received positive coverage and buzz.
 - (2) PW Expo Event-Painting container update
Attendees enthusiastically supported the painting activity. The container looks great.
 - (3) City Picnic (6/15)-First mobile event update
The decorated container made its debut at the City picnic in Kleiner Park. People utilized it and pedestrians were interested to learn about it.
 - (4) Dairy Days Parade-Update

Rachele Klein finished the bookmarks in time to distribute them on the parade route. Rachele, her husband, Steve Cory, and Andrea Pogue participated.

- (5) Marketing Strategies-Bookmark and other ideas discussion
SWAC discussed locations for the bookmarks to be placed at City Hall. Rachele and Andrea will get them distributed.
- (6) Parks Dept. 4th of July-related activity-Follow up discussion
SWAC decided not to bring the container to Storey Park because of risk of contamination.

B. SWAC Annual Activity-

- (1) PW Expo Booth-Update
The booth was a hit. SWAC looks forward to doing it annually.

C. Old Towne Clean Up-Update from meeting with Code Enforcement (RK/AP)
MPD agreed with Republic Services that T-shirts weren't properly distributed this year. For next year, instead of T-shirts, MPD agreed to help fund the purchase of reusable vests and gloves next year with Republic Services.

7. New Business

A. Communications Outreach-Discussion (SC)
