The Meridian Anti-Drug Coalition (MADC) is proud to present the Reality Party for Parents. This educational event gives parents a chance to tour a typical house party set-up to portray current trends in underage drug use and the profound influence peers are having on each other.

“It’s important for parents to understand while drug use was around when they were kids, it has evolved and can be much more dangerous,” said Kendall Nagy, MADC Director. “It is also important for parents to learn about the Disorderly Premises City Ordinance that holds them responsible and can result in fines and/or jail time, if they were to host a party with underage drug use.”

The event is free to any adult who wishes to attend. To register, or for more information, visit www.meridianmadc.org.
