Meridian Seeks to Fill Historic Preservation Commission Vacancy

MERIDIAN – The City of Meridian is currently seeking an individual to fill a vacancy on its Historic Preservation Commission for a term to run until October 31, 2018. This commission meets the second Thursday of each month at 5:30 p.m. at Meridian City Hall.

The Historic Preservation Commission works to preserve the character and fabric of historically-significant areas and structures within the City of Meridian, in order to honor and preserve its rich heritage for future generations.

Applicants should have a demonstrated interest, competence, or knowledge in history or historic preservation. Candidates may also have professional training or experience in the disciplines of architecture, history, architectural history, urban planning, archaeology, engineering, law, or other disciplines relevant to historic preservation.

More information about this voluntary position, and a link to an application form can be found here or by visiting www.meridiancity.org/city_news.aspx. In addition, a letter of interest and resume should be sent to Mayor Tammy de Weerd at Meridian City Hall, 33 E. Broadway Avenue, Meridian, ID., 83642, by Friday, March 25, 2016.
