CEC Meeting Attendees (10): Frank Boguslawski, Monte Stiles, Scott Colaianni, Bethany Gadzinski, Larry Lim, Cheryl Mulvihill, Kendall Nagy, Stephany Galbreath, Nichole Herold, Robyn Ure

CEC Meeting 4:05pm:
1. Welcome / Introduction: Kendall Nagy
2. Logic Models guide our mission. We have three logic models that determine our strategic plan, one for each of the following drugs categories:
   a. Underage drinking
   b. RX Meds
   c. Marijuana

   Strategic Prevention Framework State Incentive Grant requirements: each portion of the logic model (problem statement, root cause and local conditions) requires at least two data sources. Each logic model assesses perception of risks and availability. Seven evidence based strategies are selected to address each local condition. We are in the process of assessing our data and adjusting our strategies for the next grant fiscal year. The logic models help us hone in on our efforts and keep us from veering off track.

3. Sector Representation:
   a. Current reps are being contacted to see if they would like to continue in their position. Suggestions for new reps were welcomed. Discussion was shared on how to optimize sector representation for the good of the coalition.

4. Possible Work Groups and Associated Tasks:
   a. Legislation: Association of Idaho Cities and Association of Counties both would be groups that we could touch base with. It was recommended legislation communications start six months before the season.
   b. Marijuana Prevention: Office of Drug Policy has no initiative to start a campaign on this; it’s an opportunity for us to do so. Formation of a work group for this would be very beneficial. Once our community understands what’s going on nationally, understands the tactics, then they are interested in the issue. Prescription drugs are being focused on at the national level instead of marijuana so this makes it difficult to marginalize our awareness campaign efforts. We’ve allowed the commercialization of pot, thus gaining influence and growing power. See Wyoming “thereisnodebate.org” campaign material as an idea for us.
   c. Sector Outreach: Cheryl is working on this portion of the coalition; building a stronger foundation. Once we gather information, build a youth group, and then our sector leadership can take the information into the community. Some coalition members would like to step us as sector reps. These individuals would be trained for their new position with the coalition. Options for the Healthcare Sector Rep. from Idaho College of Osteopathic Medicine.
   d. Media: the coalition is moving forward on the Natural High campaign in conjunction with Drug Free Idaho. Having a media workgroup would help us optimize our efforts to disseminate important prevention information. The worked work closely with the sector reps.

5. Utility bill inserts: It’s in the budget for this year, but is a large amount of funds to send out the inserts with MADC information to 30,000 Meridian residents. We need to think about it’s effectiveness and determine if it’s worth our funds. Thoughts: have it depict a specific message along with an action item. Digital marketing was mentioned as an option. Possibly expand on the Natural High Campaign and scrap the utility bill insert all together for next year.

6. Second Glance Program: Applications will be accepted in April.
