| Volunteer Recognition | Volunteer of the Year nominations: volunteers are nominated for Volunteer of the Year by coalition members. Thank you to all the volunteers who make it possible for us to meet our mission, we couldn’t do it without you!
|                | David Phillips: David has been nominated for Volunteer of the Year by fellow coalition members. He serves as the Media Sector Representative on the Executive Committee. David has been very involved in helping promote the work of MADC and enhancing the coalitions partnership with Community Coalitions of Idaho. He also shared legislative resources developed by CCI and MADC with Idaho’s delegates in Washington DC. |

Our vision is to build Meridian into a drug free community where people can safely live, work and raise a family.
As the Executive Director of CCI, representing its members, David extended an invitation to MADC to participate in two podcasts, featured MADC in the CCI Coalition Spotlight and helped promote MADC’s prevention work in a variety of other capacities. Congratulations and thank you for being an active member of the coalition and strong prevention advocate.

Esmeralda Herrera - Esmeralda was nominated for Volunteer of the Year by fellow coalition members. She was also nominated in 2019. Esmeralda became involved with the coalition representing the Idaho Army National Guard, Counterdrug Support Program and has served as the Government Sector Representative on the Executive Committee. Esmeralda has dedicated years to substance abuse prevention, not only supporting the work of MADC, but many other coalitions throughout the state. She has been a great asset and helpful whenever called upon as an active coalition member. Esmeralda helped enhance the work of the coalition through refining our annual assessments and expanding statewide partnerships. Congratulations and thank you for all the years of service!

Terry Austin - This is the second year Terry has been nominated for Volunteer of the Year by fellow coalition members. She has been a member of the coalition for more than three years and serves as the Parent Sector Representative on the Executive Committee. A fellow coalition member said this about Terry, “Her dedication is amazing. You can tell she does it out of love!” Terry has continued to work hard to get in touch with parents and parent groups - even through the challenges of COVID. She consistently steps up to help and lends a helpful hand with a variety of tasks. It is a pleasure to work beside Terry. Congratulations and thank you for continuing to share your passion for prevention.

Volunteers of the Year: Congratulations!

Jamie Parry - Jamie has been voted Volunteer of the Year by fellow coalition members. This past year she served on the Coalition Executive Committee as the Youth Sector Representative. In addition to navigating a senior year filled with twists and turns due to COVID, Jamie excelled in her school work, her job and her service to the coalition. She stepped up to testify at the Capitol on behalf of MADC and completed the task with poise and confidence well beyond her years. Many people have reached out to say how impressed they were with her public speaking. Also commendable was her initiative, follow through and concise communication. We wish Jamie all the best in her next chapters! Thank you and congratulations on being MADC’s 2021 Volunteer of the Year!

Earl Scharff - Earl has been voted Volunteer of the Year by fellow coalition members for the third year in a row. He has served on the Coalition Executive Committee as the Youth Serving Sector Representative for the last two years. Earl is always willing to help in many areas within the coalition. He initiated a partnership with Holy Apostles Catholic Church that resulted in multiple new opportunities to share prevention education with community members on a large scale. He also helped provide prevention resources through
