Soliciting in the City of Meridian

A license is required to sell, door-to-door, any goods or services within Meridian city limits. This license is called a Mobile Sales Unit (MSU). People offering any services or goods door-to-door must have a Mobile Sales Unit License displayed.

Soliciting without a Mobile Sales Unit License is a violation of Meridian City Code and is a misdemeanor; if convicted, a violator may be fined up to $1,000 and/or be imprisoned for up to six months.

A Mobile Sales Unit License is not required for:

- First Amendment activities on private or public property
- Someone invited to the property
- Any trade, gift, offer, or display required by law or court order
- The occasional sale by local school students of admission to a function to their school, or of goods or services in support of a school program
- Insurance producers that hold a valid state license
