Approval Process Questionnaire

Q: How long does it take to get approval for a project?

This seems like a simple question, but to give you a good answer, we first need to ask you some questions about your property and your proposed project.

Please Note:
This questionnaire is not intended to direct you toward all the applications or processes you may need for your project, just the one that will take the longest amount of time to complete.

Ready? Okay let’s begin. Click the START button on the right.